

MAY 1ST 2025

My Baby Kecil

As the sun rises on the beginning of May 2025, I want to take a moment to remind you how deeply I love you. This is not just another month, but a new chapter in our story, one that I hope to continue writing with you by my side, for the rest of our lives.

From the very first time we spoke, I knew there was something special about you. But as time goes on, I realize more and more just how rare and precious you are. My love for you has only grown since that moment, and with each passing day, I become more certain that I will love you until the end of time. No matter what the future holds, no matter the challenges that may come our way, I promise you that my love will remain constant, unwavering, and true.

May 2025 is just the start of what I hope to be a long, beautiful journey together. I want to make every moment count, to hold you close during the good times and the bad, to always be the one you can count on. You are my light, my joy, and my peace, and I'll spend every day proving that to you.

So as we begin this new month, know this: I will love you with all of my heart, all of my soul, and all of me, for as long as I breathe. And beyond that, even when time itself runs out, my love will remain for you, because you are everything I could have ever dreamed of and more.

WITH ALL MY LOVE,

Ameyar Hamizan
