

MY DEAREST

Bocil

I just want to start this letter by saying, I am truly sorry if I ever hurt your feelings. I know sometimes I might say or do things without realizing how they affect you, but never, ever is it my intention to make your heart feel anything less than safe and loved. You mean so much to me, and it hurts me to know that I might've hurt you, even in the smallest way.

I am proud to have you by my side. Every single day, I feel so lucky, to be able to call you mine, to laugh with you, to dream with you. You are the most precious person in my life, and I do not take that for granted. I carry that pride everywhere I go because you are someone truly worth loving, worth cherishing, and worth holding on to forever.

I want this relationship, more than anything. I want to grow through it, learn through it, and build a future from it. I will protect what we have with everything I've got. This love, this bond — I will guard it like my life depends on it, because in many ways, it does. You are the one I choose, and I will keep choosing you, over and over again.

Yours always

Ansya Hamizan
